

Leave XM radio alone! Finally, there's an alternative to the commercial laden local stations that provides true value for the subscriber dollar. Although, at the current time, I don't believe XM traffic is as good as the local stations, I DO believe they have every right to broadcast local information on a national basis.